

Finished Assets & Promotional Content

Brivo provides partners with finished assets and promotional content

Brivo provides finished assets that use Brivo company logo, are in Brivo style guide, and promote our products and services. You can use these assets and add your logo and contact information for fast and easy marketing needs.

They are available for download through <https://www.brivo.com/files/????.zip>

These assets should be used as-is and cannot be manipulated. Examples follow:

Partner Newsletters

An email newsletter can serve as a high-impact marketing channel. You can share news, make announcements, and nurture relationships with your customers and prospects.

Brivo recommends using the content from

Sale Tools

to include as features, series, and updates in your newsletter.
